

The Georgetown Center on Poverty, Inequality, and Public Policy and the Urban Institute

REDUCING POVERTY AND ECONOMIC DISTRESS
AFTER THE AMERICAN RECOVERY AND REINVESTMENT ACT CONFERENCE

January 15, 2010

Speaker and Author Biographies

Lunch Presentation

Guy Molyneux (Presenter)

Partner, Hart Research Associates

Guy Molyneux is a partner and senior vice president with Peter D. Hart Research Associates. He has carried out survey and focus group research projects for a wide variety of nonprofit organizations, government agencies, labor unions, political candidates, and media organizations. His clients have included the Children's Defense Fund, the AFL-CIO, NBC News, the Council for Excellence in Government, U.S. Senator Richard Durbin, the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, the Annie E. Casey Foundation, the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), and the Open Society Institute (OSI). Mr. Molyneux previously served as director of polling for Cable News Network (CNN) and as executive director of the Commonwealth Institute. He has written about politics and public opinion for The Atlantic, Rolling Stone, Dissent, The American Prospect, and the Los Angeles Times' Sunday "Opinion" section. He has commented on politics for National Public Radio, NBC News, C-SPAN, CNBC, and CNN. Mr. Molyneux is a graduate of Harvard College and has undertaken graduate study in public opinion research and electoral politics at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.